COLLECTION LEVEL DESCRIPTION

The David Davies Railway Collection.

6 m of textual records and other material

- 51 architectural and technical drawings
- 1 sound recording
- approx. 4000 photographs

Biographical Sketch: David Llewelyn Davies is a railway historian from Kamloops, British Columbia. Davies grew up in north Wales. After serving as a subaltern in the Welch Regiment in the immediate post WWII period, Davies was employed as a personnel officer in British industry until immigrating to Canada in the early 1960s. Thereafter he worked in the linen rental and laundry trade in British Columbia. Davies has written numerous articles and booklets, many relating to British Columbia railway history.

Custodial History: The David Davies Railway Collection was donated to the Northern BC Archives directly from the collector in 2013.

Scope and Content:

The David Davies Railway Collection encompasses all facets of railway history in British Columbia, consisting of research material accumulated over the course of more than fifty years, including monographs, periodicals, articles, clippings, photographs, maps and plans, and excerpts. The collection has been divided into the following thirty-six series:

Arrangement Note: Original order has been maintained, but rehousing and inclusion of monographs has shifted the numbering of the original boxes. Original box numbers are noted for reference purposes.

Restrictions: None.

Rights: With the exception of copyrighted works of David Ll. Davies, permission to reproduce copyrighted items for purposes other than research must be obtained directly from the copyright holder.

SERIES AND SUBSERIES LEVEL DESCRIPTIONS

1) General series-----Page 23
24 cm of textual material

Series consists of general histories, statistics, and sources for railway subjects, which predominantly consist of photocopy reproductions and clippings from periodicals. Most documents are Canada-wide in scope.

Boxes: 1-4 (Original boxes: 1-3)
Accession No. 2013.6.01

1.1) Sources subseries-----Page 23
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of sources for railway history research. Includes bibliographies, glossaries, research guides, and indexes.

Boxes: 1 (Original box: 1)
Accession No. 2013.6.1.1

1.2) General Histories and Statistics subseries-----Page 24
18 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of general histories and statistics of British Columbia and Canada. Includes monographs and periodicals that provide background information for British Columbia railway history research.

Boxes: 2-4 (Original boxes: 2-3)
Accession No. 2013.6.1.2

2) Maps and Plans-----Page 26
6 cm of textual material

Series consists of province-wide and regional maps of British Columbia that show railway trackage or otherwise relate to railways. Includes plans of railway structures, trackage, and buildings built in British Columbia by railway companies. Contains maps that depict the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Canadian National Railway, the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, BC Rail, the Great Northern Railway, and various Vancouver Island railways.

See series 35 “Oversize Material” for oversize maps and plans.

Box: 5 (Original boxes: 4-5)
Accession No. 2013.6.02

3) Survey and Construction-----Page 28

18 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding railway survey and construction in British Columbia. Includes information about construction statistics, surveying and tendering, construction methods, contractors, and equipment. Also includes details about the construction of specific railways, including the Canadian Northern Railway, the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, the Kettle Valley Railway, the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, the Crow's Nest Pass Railway, and others.

Boxes: 6-8 (Original boxes:6-8)

Accession No. 2013.6.03

4) Bridges-----Page 31

6 cm of textual material

Series consists of articles, clippings, and other research material regarding railway bridges in British Columbia. Includes information about fixed span bridges, drawbridges, moveable span bridges, and trestles. Also includes details about specific bridges, such as the New Westminster Drawbridge, the Second Narrows Drawbridge, and the Cisco Bridge.

Boxes: 9 (Original box: 9)

Accession No. 2013.6.04

5) Structures-----Page 32

6 cm of textual material

Series consists of plans, articles, and clippings regarding structures built by railways (with the exception of bridges and stations) in British Columbia. Includes information about engine houses, roundhouses, turntables, water delivery structures, fuelling facilities, freight houses, ice storage shed, tunnels, and other railway structures.

Box: 10 (Original box: 10)

Accession No. 2013.6.05

6) Stations-----Page 33

6 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding railway stations in British Columbia. Includes information about station furnishing, architectural history, flagstops, and railway station gardens. Also contains details about specific stations and types of stations built by each railway in British Columbia, including stations built by the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Canadian National Railway, the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway, the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, and the Great Northern Railway.

Box: 11 (Original box: 11)

Accession No. 2013.6.06

7) Track and Trackside-----Page 35
6 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding the laying and maintenance of railway track and other trackside operations in British Columbia. Includes information about rails, track, turnouts, rail ties, gradients, telegraph lines, track signage, road crossings, and diamond crossings.

Box: 12 (Original boxes: 12-13)
Accession No. 2013.6.07

8) Maintenance of Way-----Page 37
12 cm of textual material

Series consists of material related to maintenance-of-way on British Columbia railways. Includes information about track sections, track vehicles, mechanized maintenance, and animals on railway tracks.

Boxes: 13-14 (Original boxes: 14-15)
Accession No. 2013.6.08

9) Snow Removal-----Page 38
6 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding snow removal on British Columbia railways. Includes information about snow removal operations, snow removal equipment, and rotary snow plows.

Box: 15 (Original box: 16)
Accession No. 2013.6.09

10) Locomotives-----Page 39
24 cm of textual material

Series consists of research material relating to steam and diesel locomotives that were used on British Columbia railways. Includes information about the steam to diesel transition period, details about specific locomotives, locomotive manufacturers, and self-propelled coaches.

Boxes: 16-19 (Original boxes: 17-20)
Accession No. 2013.6.10

10.1) Steam Locomotives-----Page 39
12 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of research material relating to steam locomotives that were used on British Columbia railways. Includes information about steam locomotive types, manufacturers, mechanical details, and the steam to diesel transition period. Also includes details about specific steam locomotives owned by the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Canadian National Railway, the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, the Great Northern Railway, and the White Pass & Yukon Route.

Boxes: 16-17 (Original boxes: 17-18)
Accession No. 2013.6.10.1

10.2) Diesel Locomotives-----Page 40
12 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of research material relating to diesel locomotives that were used or are currently in use on British Columbia railways. Includes information about the evolution of diesel locomotives, manufacturers, booster locomotives, switchers, diesel-electric locomotives, and self-propelled coaches (Budd cars). Also includes details about specific diesel locomotives and locomotive types owned by the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Canadian National Railway, the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, BC Rail, VIA Rail, the Great Northern Railway, and the Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railway.

Boxes: 18-19 (Original boxes: 19-20)
Accession No. 2013.6.10.2

11) Rolling Stock-----Page 42
30 cm of textual material

Series consists of articles, clippings, and other research material related to rolling stock used on British Columbia railways. Although the term “rolling stock” encompasses all vehicles that move on a railway, some material regarding rolling stock is filed separately, such as locomotives (see series 2013.6.11). Includes information about passenger cars, freight cars, and non-revenue cars (caboose, cranes, service cars, etc.).

Boxes: 20-24 (Original boxes: 21-25)
Accession No. 2013.6.11

11.1) Passenger Cars-----Page 42
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of material related to passenger cars. Includes information about rail diesel cars (Budd cars), baggage coaches, diner cars, Pullman/sleeper cars, observation cars, business cars, private coaches, and other passenger coaches. Also includes information about manufacturers of passenger coaches, revenue head-end cars attached to passenger trains, and passenger cars owned by specific railways.

Box: 20 (Original box: 21)
Accession No. 2013.6.11.1

11.2) Freight Cars-----Page 43
18 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of material related to freight cars. Includes information about box cars, hoppers, stock cars, tank cars, refrigerator cars, gondolas, ore cars, lumber cars, flat cars, woodchip cars, auto carriers, and intermodal/container cars. Also includes information about boxcar design, freight statistics, reporting marks, and freight car components.

Boxes: 21-23 (Original boxes: 22-24)
Accession No. 2013.6.11.2

11.3) Non-Revenue Cars-----Page 45
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of material related to non-revenue cars, which include cabooses, handcars, maintenance-of-way cars, track testers, railway cranes, pile drivers, ditchers, ballast spreaders, flangers, service cars, and work trains. More information about non-revenue cars can be found in the Maintenance-of-Way series (2013.6.8).

Box: 24 (Original box: 25)
Accession No. 2013.6.11.3

12) Employee Timetables-----Page 46
30 cm of textual material

Series consists of employee timetables for the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Canadian National Railway, the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, BC Rail, the Great Northern Railway, the Great Northern Railway, the Burlington Northern Railway, the BC Electric Railway, and the BC Harbours Board Railway. Also known as “working timetables”, these are a valuable research tool that include timings at every station or other significant location along the train's journey, the train's reporting number, its maximum speed, and any other information relevant to the operation of the train.

Boxes: 25-29 (Original boxes: 26-30)
Accession No. 2013.6.12

12.1) CPR Employee Timetables-----Page 46
12 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of Canadian Pacific Railway employee timetables and schedules. Also includes employee timetables for the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway.

Boxes: 25-26 (Original boxes: 26-27)
Accession No. 2013.6.12.1

12.2) CNR Employee Timetables-----Page 47
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of Canadian National Railway employee timetables and schedules.

Box: 27 (Original box: 28)
Accession No. 2013.6.12.2

12.3) PGE and BC Rail Employee Timetables-----Page 48
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of Pacific Great Eastern and BC Rail employee timetables and schedules.

Box: 28 (Original box: 29)
Accession No. 2013.6.12.3

12.4) GNR and Other Railway Employee Timetables-----Page 49
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of Great Northern Railway employee timetables and schedules. Also includes employee timetables for the Burlington Northern Railway, the BC Electric Railway, and the BC Harbours Board Railway.

Box: 29 (Original box: 30)
Accession No. 2013.6.12.4

13) Public Timetables-----Page 50

6 cm of textual material

Series consists of public timetables for the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, BC Rail, the CNR, the CPR, the Great Northern Railway, the Burlington Northern Railway, and VIA Rail.

Box: 30 (Original box: 31)

Accession No. 2013.6.13

14) Controlling Movement-----Page 51

6 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding the control of movement on British Columbia railways. Includes information about control systems, dispatching, schedules, telegraph lines, telephone systems, radio, timing, train orders, semaphore, searchlight, train whistles, and computer systems.

Box: 31 (Original box: 32)

Accession No. 2013.6.14

15) Work Force-----Page 52

12 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding railway employees and work force. Includes information about training, safety, recruitment, labour relations, railway unions, job titles, managers, pay scales, and uniforms. Also includes collective agreements and operating rules for employees.

Box: 32-33 (Original box: 33)

Accession No. 2013.6.15

16) Train Types and Use-----Page 54

12 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding various train types and uses, including passenger trains and freight trains. Also includes information about train handling, train yards, and switching.

Boxes: 34-35 (Original boxes: 34-35)

Accession No. 2013.6.16

17) Mishaps-----Page 55

12 cm of textual material

Series consists of articles, clippings, and other material regarding railway accidents and mishaps in British Columbia. Includes information about derailments, collisions, fires, slides, washouts, avalanches, runaway trains, bridge failures, accidents at grade crossings, and accident statistics.

Boxes: 36-37 (Original boxes: 36-37)

Accession No. 2013.6.17

18) Canadian Pacific Railway-----Page 56
36 cm of textual material

Series consists of information about the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia, including its history, construction, statistics, and branches.

Boxes: 38-43 (Original boxes: 38-43)
Accession No. 2013.6.18

18.1) CPR General-----Page 56
12 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of general material regarding the Canadian Pacific Railway in both Canada and British Columbia. Includes information about the history of CPR, chronologies, statistics, CPR management and administration, and publicity. Also includes monographs relating to CPR.

Boxes: 38-39 (Original box: 38-39)
Accession No. 2013.6.18.1

18.2) CPR Early Days-----Page 57
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of research material regarding the early days of the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia, between 1880 and 1900. Includes information about the construction of the CPR main line in British Columbia, the Chinese labour force used in the construction of the railway, and tunneling through the Canadian Rockies.

Box: 40 (Original box: 40)
Accession No. 2013.6.18.2

18.3) CPR Main Line, Post 1900-----Page 58
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of material regarding the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia, which runs from the Alberta border to Vancouver, from 1900 to the present. Includes information about branches from the main line, such as the Arrow Lakes branch, Okanagan branch, Mission branch, and New Westminster branch.

Box: 41 (Original box: 41)
Accession No. 2013.6.18.3

18.4) CPR Areas-----Page 59
12 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of information about areas served by the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia, including Metro Vancouver. Contains material regarding the Nakusp & Slocan branch, Kaslo & Slocan branch, Crows Nest Pass Railway, and other minor lines.

Boxes: 42-43 (Original boxes: 42-43)
Accession No. 2013.6.18.4

19) Kettle Valley Railway-----Page 61
18 cm of textual material

Series consists of material relating to the Kettle Valley Railway. Includes information about the history of the railway, its Carmi sub-division, its Osoyoos branch, and the Nicola spur. Also includes correspondence and documents regarding the dismantling of parts of the KVR, as well as its preservation as a heritage railway. Contains monographs about the history of the KVR, its construction, and its current use as a recreational area.

Boxes: 44-46 (Original boxes: 44-45)
Accession No. 2013.6.19

20) Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway-----Page 63
6 cm of textual material

Series consists of research material regarding the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway. Includes information about the history of the E&N, CPR operation of the railway up to 1998, and the operation of the E&N after 1998 and its demise. Also includes public timetables and forms.

Box: 47 (Original box: 46)

21) Canadian National Railway-----Page 64
30 cm of textual material

Series consists of information about the Canadian National Railway in British Columbia, including its history, construction, statistics, and branches. Includes information about the Canadian Northern Railway, the CNR main line from Jasper to Vancouver, the North Line (originally a Grand Trunk Pacific Railway line), and the Okanagan branch.

Boxes: 48-52 (Original boxes: 47-52, 79)
Accession No. 2013.6.21

21.1) CNR General-----Page 64
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of general material regarding the Canadian National Railway in both Canada and British Columbia. Includes information about the history of CNR, chronologies, statistics, CNR management and administration, finances, and publicity.

Box: 48 (Original box: 47)
Accession No. 2013.6.21.1

21.2) CNR Areas-----Page 65
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of information about areas served by the Canadian National Railway in British Columbia. Includes information about the Canadian Northern Railway, the CNR main line from Jasper to Vancouver, Vancouver Island lines, Greater Vancouver lines, and the CNR trestle and embankment at Lyon Creek.

Box: 49 (Original box: 48)
Accession No. 2013.6.21.2

21.3) CNR North Line-----Page 66
12 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of material regarding the Canadian National Railway North Line from Jasper to Prince Rupert. Includes information about the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway line from Red Pass Junction to Prince Rupert, which switched ownership to CNR in 1922.

Boxes: 50-51 (Original boxes: 49-50, 79)
Accession No. 2013.6.21.3

21.4) CNR Okanagan Branch-----Page 68
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of material regarding the Canadian National Railway Okanagan Branch. Includes information about the infrastructure and operation of the branch, the locomotives and self-propelled coaches used on the branch line, and track plans.

Box: 52 (Original boxes: 51-52)
Accession No. 2013.6.21.4

22) Pacific Great Eastern Railway and BC Rail-----Page 69
18 cm of textual material

Series consists of information about the Pacific Great Eastern Railway and BC Rail, the provincial railway of British Columbia. Includes information about its history, construction, statistics, and its Dease Lake extension.

Boxes: 53-55 (Original boxes: 53-56)
Accession No. 2013.6.22

22.1) Pacific Great Eastern Railway-----Page 69
12 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of material regarding the history of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, the provincial railway of British Columbia. Includes promotional publications from the PGE, annual reports, information about the PGE at Seton Portage, and its transition into the British Columbia Railway in 1972.

Boxes: 53-54 (Original boxes: 53-55)
Accession No. 2013.6.22.1

22.2) BC Rail-----Page 71
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of material regarding the British Columbia Railway (1972-1984) and BC Rail (1984-2004). Includes information about the history of BC Rail, BC Rail under the ownership of CN after 2004, and the incomplete Dease Lake extension.

Box: 55 (Original box: 56)
Accession No. 2013.6.22.2

23) VIA Rail-----Page 72
6 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding VIA Rail in British Columbia. Includes information about its formation between 1978 and 1982, passenger operations, and the Amtrak-VIA Rail connection.

Box: 56 (Original box: 57)
Accession No. 2013.6.23

24) Great Northern Railway-----Page 73
12 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding the Great Northern Railway in British Columbia. Includes information about its history, its branches in the lower mainland and in the Kootenays, the Nelson & Fort Sheppard Railway, the Crows Nest Southern Railway GNR branch, and Fernie.

Boxes: 57-58 (Original boxes: 58, 83)
Accession No. 2013.6.24

25) BC Electric Railway and BC Hydro Railway-----Page 75
12 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding the BC Electric Railway (1897-1961) and its successor, the BC Hydro Railway (1961-1989). Includes information about BCER interurbans, the Granville Island street railway, and the Nelson Electric Tramway. This series excludes all aspects of BCER streetcar operations and rapid transit lines.

Boxes: 59-60 (Original boxes: 59-60)
Accession No. 2013.6.25

26) White Pass and Yukon Railway-----Page 77
6 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding the White Pass and Yukon Route, a narrow gauge railway that links Skagway and Whitehorse. Includes monographs about the history of the railway.

Box: 61 (Original box: 61)
Accession No. 2013.6.26

27) Short Lines-----Page 78
6 cm of textual material

Series consists of articles and clippings regarding short line railways in British Columbia. Includes information about the Southern Railway of British Columbia, the Kelowna Pacific Railway, the Okanagan Valley Railway, the Kaslo and Slocan Railway, the Northern Alberta Railway, the Victoria and Sidney Railway, and the Mt. Sicker Railway, among others.

Boxes: 62 (Original box: 62)
Accession No. 2013.6.27

28) Passengers-----Page 79
6 cm of textual material

Series consists of material regarding passengers on British Columbia railways. Includes information about the decline in North American railway passenger traffic, passenger experience, passenger fares, publicity, railway hotels, restaurant car catering, baggage and express services, and railway post offices (RPOs).

Box: 63 (Original box: 63)
Accession No. 2013.6.28

29) Freight-----Page 80

24 cm of textual material

Series consists of research material regarding rail freight in British Columbia and in general. Includes information about freight statistics, freight customers in BC, freight revenue, less-than-carload service, types of freight loads, freight loading and discharging devices, and intermodal freight. Also includes information on the rail transport of coal, coke fuel, ore, lumber, pulp and paper, potash, sulfur, cement, gypsum, grain, fish, chemicals, petroleum, automobiles, and livestock.

Boxes: 64-67 (Original boxes: 64-66, 81)

Accession No. 2013.6.29

30) Rail Ferries-----Page 84

12 cm of textual material

Series consists of articles, clippings, and monographs regarding rail ferries in British Columbia. Includes information about freshwater rail ferries in the Kootenays and Okanagan and saltwater rail ferries.

Boxes: 68-69 (Original boxes: 67-68)

Accession No. 2013.6.30

30.1) Freshwater Rail Ferries-----Page 84

6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of information about freshwater rail ferries in British Columbia. Includes information about ferries run by the Canadian Pacific Railway in the Kootenays and the Okanagan. Also includes information about the Canadian National Railway's transfer barge services.

Box: 68 (Original box: 67)

Accession No. 2013.6.30.1

30.2) Saltwater Rail Ferries-----Page 85

6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of information about saltwater rail ferries off the coast of British Columbia. Includes information about the Canadian National rail ferry, the S.S. Canora, which was built by the Canadian Northern Railway. Also includes information about saltwater rail ferries and barge operations run by the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, and the Alaska Trainship Company.

Box: 69 (Original box: 68)

Accession No. 2013.6.30.2

31) Industrial Railways-----Page 86
24 cm of textual material

Series consists of research material regarding industrial railways in British Columbia. Includes information about industrial locomotives, logging railroads, mining railways, and other industrial railway lines. Also includes monographs and periodicals about the history of various industrial railways.

Boxes: 70-73 (Original boxes: 69-72, 82)
Accession No. 2013.6.31

31.1) Industrial Locomotives-----Page 86
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of material regarding locomotives that were used on industrial railways in British Columbia. Includes information about manufacturers of industrial locomotives, geared industrial locomotives (Shay, Climax, and Heisler), Porter locomotives, and compressed air locomotives.

Box: 70 (Original box: 69-70)
Accession No. 2013.6.31.1

31.2) Logging Railroads-----Page 87
6 cm of textual material

Subseries consists of material regarding logging railways in British Columbia. Includes information about Pacific Coast Logging, the Hillcrest Lumber Company rail line, the Comox Logging and Railway Company, and the Canfor Logging Railway in the Nimpkish Valley, among others.

Box: 71 (Original box: 71)
Accession No. 2013.6.31.2
