FONDS LEVEL DESCRIPTION

Brian Fawcett fonds.

Dates: 1951-2006

Physical Description: 9.4 m of textual records and other material

Biographical Sketch: Brian Fawcett was born in Prince George on May 13, 1944. He completed elementary and secondary school in Prince George before leaving at the age of 22 to attend Simon Fraser University. After graduating with a B.A. (Honours) in 1969 from SFU, Fawcett went on to complete coursework for a M.A. in English Literature at SFU in 1972. After graduation, he worked as a Community Organizer and Urban Planner for the Greater Vancouver Regional District until 1988. Mr. Fawcett is a former Editor of "Books in Canada" and a former Columnist for the "Globe & Mail" newspaper. He has also written articles and reviews for many of Canada's major magazines. In addition, Fawcett has worked as a teacher of English and Creative Writing in federal maximum security penitentiaries. While living in Vancouver, he wrote My Career with the Leafs and Other Stories (1982), Capital Tales (1984), The Secret Journal of Alexander Mackenzie (1985), Cambodia (1986), and Public Eye (1990) as well as books of poetry. He moved to Toronto in 1990, where he became a full-time writer and published Gender Wars (1994), Disbeliever's Dictionary (1997), Virtual Clearcut (2003), Local Matters (2003), Human Happiness (2011), and The Last of the Lumbermen (2013), among others. Virtual Clearcut won the 2003 Pearson Prize for Canadian non-fiction. In 2001, he co-founded (with Stan Persky) the alternative news service www.dooneyscave.com which he contributes to regularly.
